

Les SIREDEY

Voici encore un autre très vieux patronyme très connu du Châtillonnais que j'ai rencontré dans les registres des « Cerches les Feux du Bailliage de la Montaigne » du Châtillonnais.

Je dirai que j'ai trouvé deux traces de SIREDEY issues d'Ampilly-les-Bordes et du Chemin d'Ampilly-les-Bordes (Ampilly-le-Haut à présent), deux petits villages distants de 1.5 km que l'on trouve sur la carte de Cassini n°83 de Semur en Auxois.

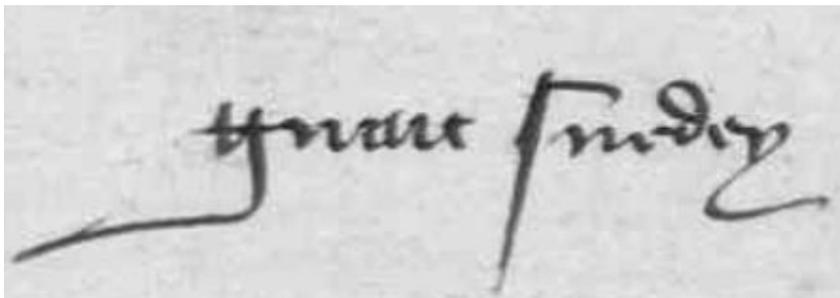

En ce temps les limites des villages évoluées Ampilly-les-Bordes dépendait de Baigneux-les-Juifs et le Chemin d'Ampilly dépendait de Duesme.

On remarquera que nous ne sommes pas très loin d'Aignay-le-Duc et de Grand-Bois où les SIREDEY apparaissent 125 ans plus tard sur des actes notariés (1552).

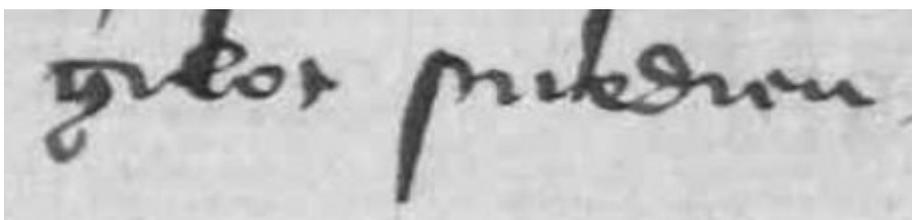

Voici ceux du Chemin d'Ampilly-les-Bordes :
